

XI. For peace

Let us pray also for an end to war, that our God and Lord be pleased to inspire diplomacy and di - a - logue,
so that peace may be sus - tained.

Let us pray also for an end to war,
that our God and Lord be pleased to inspire diplomacy and dialogue,
so that peace may be sustained.

Prayer in silence. Then the priest says (sings):

Al - mighty ever-living God, You sent your Son to walk among us and to bring your message of peace
near the very area which is now torn by war.

Watch over all those who are overshadowed by conflicts around the world:
 protect innocent civilians, guard soldiers in battle,
 and shelter worshipping communities,
 so that the voices of diplomacy will silence the weapons of war.
 Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty ever-living God,
 You sent your Son to walk among us
 and to bring your message of peace
 near the very area which is now torn by war.
 Watch over all those who are overshadowed by conflicts around the world:
 protect innocent civilians,
 guard soldiers in battle,
 and shelter worshipping communities,
 so that the voices of diplomacy will silence the weapons of war.
 Through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.
