

PREPARATION CHECKLIST:

CELEBRATION OF THE LORD'S PASSION

GOOD FRIDAY

- The altar is completely bare.
- The Lectionary is prepared in the usual way on the ambo.
- Gospel books or Passion books are pre-set from where they will be read or at another convenient place.
- The missal is at the book-bearer's chair.
- If the Chapel of Repose was outside the main church, the usual tabernacle remains empty with the door conspicuously open. The vigil candle is removed and unlit.
- The font remains completely emptied (including any other dependent stoups and fonts)
- The paschal candle stand remains empty and placed near the empty font, or in its usual place, or removed entirely.
- A large cross is prepared for adoration by the faithful.
- Candles may be prepared in the back of the church for the processions of cross and Blessed Sacrament.
- At the credence table:
 - Altar cloth
 - Corporal
 - Plates needed for distribution of Holy Communion.
 - (Lavabo, chalices, purificators, water cruet not needed.)
 - Humeral veil
- The worship aids are at the doors or given out by ministers of hospitality. Worship aids are placed on the chair of all ministers who are in the procession.
- Basket for the collection for Churches of Central and Eastern Europe, and signage are at the doors of the church.
