A Day of Dialogue – Please Spread the Word

WHERE – Chaminade Ctr. on the Mt. St. John campus, Dayton OH.

WHEN – Saturday, April 25, 2026; 9:00am-5:00pm (Eastern Time).

FOCUS

How Do We Sustain our Commitments & Maintain a Sense of Hope in Fearful Times?

For many of us, these are trying times, filled with uncertainty, anxiety and even fear. The moorings that ground us feel threatened and the commitments we've made seem imperiled.

How and where can I find strength?
How and where can I find support?
How and where can I find guidance?

During the Day of Dialogue, we will explore the sources of our fears and get in touch with what is causing us to sometimes feel powerless and overwhelmed with the challenges that assail us. But we will also identify ways that we can overcome our fears, strengthen our commitments and nurture a sense of hope by identifying new possibilities, new opportunities, new sources of resilience and power. Ultimately, what is mine to do and what do I need to do it?

The day will include two presentations by Dan Horan, large group and small group sharing/discussion and time for personal reflection.

RESOURCE PERSON – Daniel Horan, PhD

Dan is Professor of Philosophy, Religious Studies and Theology at Saint Mary's College, Notre Dame IN. He has authored or edited 16 books, including Fear and Faith: Hope and Wholeness in a Fractured World, and is a columnist for National Catholic Reporter.

COST - $35, which includes lunch.

PRIMARY SPONSOR – Visitation Marianist State Community

PLEASE SPREAD THE WORD

Invite your members and people in your network to attend the Day of Dialogue. Promotional material and registration will be available the week of Jan. 5.

FOR MORE INFORMATION – Contact Jim Vogt – jimvogt2@yahoo.com