A PROPHETIC CALL TO THRIVE

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops and Subcommittee on African Affairs in partnership with the National Black Catholic Congress sponsors three workshops on the topic of evangelization:

PRESENTATION 1:

What We Have Seen And Heard for the 21st Century
Most Rev. Terry Steib and Ms. Ali Mumbach

---

PRESENTATION 2:

Evangelization Across Cultures
Ms. Kathleen Dorsey Bellow, Mr. Jesse Cox, and Ms. Viveca Nwagbaraocha

---

PRESENTATION 3:

Evangelizing God's People: From Fear to Joy
Rev. Roy Lee

“These three presentations will focus on: Looking at what we’ve already done; What we’re already doing in terms of the contemporary situation; and, What we think we might do to ensure the proclamation of Jesus Christ in all our activities. Be that prayer, worship, catechesis, charitable outreach, out of the richness of our Catholicism.”

Most Rev. Joseph Perry, Chairman of the United States Bishops Subcommittee of African American Catholic Affairs.

“We now have a solemn responsibility to lead the Church’s work within the Black community. We must counter the assumption that to become Catholic is to abandon one’s racial heritage and one’s people! ...The Black presence in the American Catholic Church is a precious witness to the universal character of Catholicism.”
