The Deacon Memo

June, 2022

Congratulations, Deacon Royce Winters!

Deacon Royce Winters was conferred the Acacia Award for the 35th Annual Celebration of the Archdiocese of Louisville's Office of Multicultural Ministry's African American Catholic Leadership Awards Dinner. The purpose of Acacia Awards dinner is to recognize African American Catholic leadership within the Archdiocese of Louisville and regionally. Acacia Award recipients have demonstrated a commitment to serving the needs of Black Catholics and the larger Church community. In awarding him the honor, the Archdiocese of Louisville stated "Deacon Winters has been instrumental in facilitating discussions in the Archdioceses of Cincinnati and Louisville on the implementation of the U.S. Catholic Bishops Pastoral Letter Against Racism, 'Open Wide Our Hearts: The Enduring Call to Love' in parishes and schools. Additionally, Deacon Royce has been facilitating Reflection Days on 'Intentional Discipleship: A Joy Ever New, A Joy Shared.'"

The Archdiocese of Cincinnati and our deacon community extend our sincere congratulations to our brother Royce for his outstanding accomplishments and for this award. Deacon Royce serves as a deacon in the South-6 Family of Parishes and is the Director of the African American Ministries Office for the Archdiocese. May God continue to bless your ministry, Royce.

It will be held Saturday, August 6, 2022 at Ascension Parish in Kettering. It’s a central location to make it easily accessible for all to attend. We will join the parish at their 5 pm Mass, followed by hors d’oeuvres and cocktail hour, then a catered dinner. The entire evening is provided to you at no cost.
