

Theology Teacher

Mercy McAuley High School

Position Overview

Mercy McAuley High School is a Catholic college preparatory school for young women. It is a sponsored ministry of the Institute of the Sisters of Mercy of the Americas and is a member of Mercy Education. Mercy McAuley is seeking a faith-filled and mission-driven Theology teacher. This position may be structured as full-time or part-time based on the needs of the school and the candidate's availability. This educator will inspire students in their relationship with Jesus Christ, cultivate thoughtful theological inquiry, and help young women grow as leaders rooted in the Mercy tradition. The ideal candidate embraces the Mercy Core Values: Compelled by Faith, Inspired by Mercy, Educational Courage, Principled Leadership and A Voice for Dignity and Respect.

Primary Responsibilities

- Teach Theology courses such as Intro to Catholicism, Sacraments and Morality.
- Design engaging lessons that promote deep thinking, respectful dialogue, and spiritual growth
- Create a classroom culture where students are known, challenged, and supported
- Integrate Mercy charism and Catholic Social Teaching into daily instruction
- Collaborate with Campus Ministry to support liturgies, retreats, prayer experiences, and service initiatives
- Communicate regularly with students, families, and colleagues regarding student progress
- Participate fully in the life of the school community

Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in Theology, Religious Studies, or related field
- Practicing Catholic who models a lived faith and commitment to the Church
- Experience teaching high school students preferred
- Strong communication skills and the ability to build positive relationships with young women
- Commitment to Catholic education and the mission of Mercy McAuley High School