

Social Studies Teacher

Mercy McAuley High School

Position Overview

Mercy McAuley High School is a Catholic college preparatory school for young women. It is a sponsored ministry of the Institute of the Sisters of Mercy of the Americas and is a member of Mercy Education. Mercy McAuley High School is seeking an engaging and knowledgeable Social Studies teacher. This position may be structured as full-time or part-time based on the needs of the school and the candidate's availability. This educator will cultivate critical thinking, civil discourse, and historical understanding while helping students connect the past to the present. The ideal candidate embraces the Mercy Core Values: Compelled by Faith, Inspired by Mercy, Educational Courage, Principled Leadership and A Voice for Dignity and Respect.

Primary Responsibilities

- Teach Social Studies courses such as World History, United States History, Government, Economics, and Advanced Placement United States History
- Design lessons that emphasize inquiry, analysis of primary sources, writing, and respectful discussion
- Foster civic responsibility and global awareness
- Create a classroom culture where students are known, challenged, and supported
- Integrate Catholic Social Teaching and Mercy values where appropriate
- Use data to inform instruction and provide timely, meaningful feedback
- Communicate regularly with students, families, and colleagues regarding student progress
- Participate fully in the life of the school community

Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in History, Social Studies Education, Political Science, or related field. Master's degree preferred
- Valid teaching license or ability to obtain licensure
- Experience teaching high school students preferred
- Strong classroom management and facilitation skills
- Commitment to Catholic education and the mission of Mercy McAuley High School