

MASS TIMES:

Welcome!

The school year brings routines, activities, and plenty of moving parts. It's easy to feel pulled in every direction. That's why Back Together Sunday is a time to pause and reconnect — with faith, with friends, and with the community of faith that supports your family. Whether you're at Mass every week or it's been a while, this is a day to feel at home, surrounded by people walking a similar path.

Your family belongs here.

All of us are better, and stronger, together.

Welcome!

The school year brings routines, activities, and plenty of moving parts. It's easy to feel pulled in every direction. That's why Back Together Sunday is a time to pause and reconnect — with faith, with friends, and with the community of faith that supports your family. Whether you're at Mass every week or it's been a while, this is a day to feel at home, surrounded by people walking a similar path.

Your family belongs here.

All of us are better, and stronger, together.

Back
TOGETHER

MASS TIMES:

Welcome!

The school year brings routines, activities, and plenty of moving parts. It's easy to feel pulled in every direction. That's why Back Together Sunday is a time to pause and reconnect — with faith, with friends, and with the community of faith that supports your family. Whether you're at Mass every week or it's been a while, this is a day to feel at home, surrounded by people walking a similar path.

Your family belongs here.

All of us are better, and stronger, together.

MASS TIMES:

Welcome!

The school year brings routines, activities, and plenty of moving parts. It's easy to feel pulled in every direction. That's why Back Together Sunday is a time to pause and reconnect — with faith, with friends, and with the community of faith that supports your family. Whether you're at Mass every week or it's been a while, this is a day to feel at home, surrounded by people walking a similar path.

Your family belongs here.

All of us are better, and stronger, together.

Back
TOGETHER

MASS TIMES:

Welcome!

The school year brings routines, activities, and plenty of moving parts. It's easy to feel pulled in every direction. That's why Back Together Sunday is a time to pause and reconnect — with faith, with friends, and with the community of faith that supports your family. Whether you're at Mass every week or it's been a while, this is a day to feel at home, surrounded by people walking a similar path.

Your family belongs here.

All of us are better, and stronger, together.

MASS TIMES:

Welcome!

The school year brings routines, activities, and plenty of moving parts. It's easy to feel pulled in every direction. That's why Back Together Sunday is a time to pause and reconnect — with faith, with friends, and with the community of faith that supports your family. Whether you're at Mass every week or it's been a while, this is a day to feel at home, surrounded by people walking a similar path.

Your family belongs here.

All of us are better, and stronger, together.