

Virtual Field Trips & Experiences

Cincinnati Museum Center is your partner in teaching and learning across a wide range of content, from early childhood development to science and social studies. We provide a wealth of FREE* in-person and virtual programming that supports your instruction, enlivens classroom and at-home experiences and connects your students to engaging experts in a variety of fields.

Virtual Field Trips

Ready to explore our exhibits from school or home? Our virtual field trips are in-depth tours of our featured and permanent exhibits through video walk-throughs, expert interviews and immersive content on your schedule. Each tour is aligned with OH and KY content standards and is designed for students to explore with their teacher in a guided format or on their own. Reservations provide unlimited access for one week.

Bring CMC to you with Programs-on-Wheels

Bring the excitement of CMC to your location with our Programs-on-Wheels. These engaging programs meet science and social studies standards in Ohio, Kentucky and Indiana, with options available for preschool through high school students. Many programs can be led outdoors at your location. See here for a full list of offerings and to schedule your programs. Free* for qualifying schools.

If virtual programming works better for you, stream Programs-on-Wheels live into your classroom! Please contact Valerie Horobik at vhorobik@cincymuseum.org to choose a program and virtual connection.

Interact LIVE with our team of experts

Invite a CMC science or history curator or one of our educators to a virtual conversation with your students! In our Conversations with an Expert you'll learn about their background, explore their research and get a detailed look at some of our fascinating collection objects. We can connect classrooms with experts in archaeology, zoology, paleontology and Cincinnati history. 30-minute conversations are free* for qualifying classrooms. Please contact Tony Lawson at tlawson@cincymuseum.org to connect with CMC experts.
